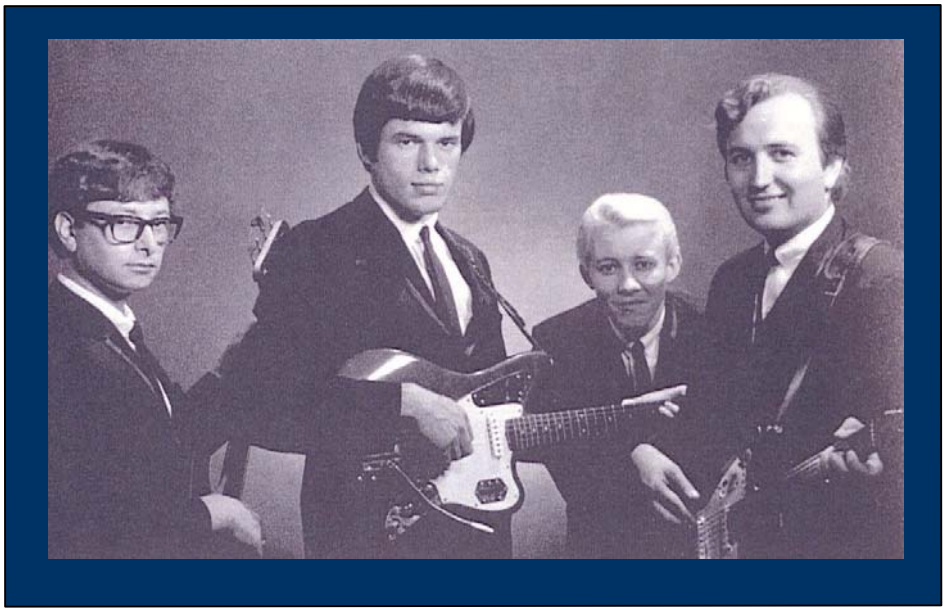
The Trashmen

Inducted in 2005



The Trashmen – The Trashmen was a rock and roll band formed in Minneapolis in 1962. The group's lineup was Tony Andreason, lead guitar; Dal Winslow, guitar and vocals; Steve Wahrer, drums and vocals and Bob Reed, guitar. In 1963 they recorded "Surfin' Bird" which soared to #2 in cashbox charts and # 4 in Billboard charts. The only records topping the Trashmen that year were those by the Beatles. The Trashmen are revered by 60's collectors as one of the great American teenband combos of all time, exemplifying wild, unabashed rock & roll at its most demented, barebones-basic, lone –E-chord finest.
