

Minnesota Music Hall of Fame Inductee

Dennis Morgan (1952 -) Inducted in 1990

He was born in Tracy, Minnesota in 1952 where he started writing music at the age of 12. He hitchhiked to Nashville, Tenn. at the age of 19. From 1977 to 1983 he wrote some 50 hits for Barbara Mandrell, Ronnie Milsap, Charley Pride, Sylvia, Steve Wariner, Jim Ed Brown and Helen Cornelius.

Approximately 500 of his songs have been recorded. He began the little Shop of Morgan Songs and the Morgan Music Group Inc. in 1984, which is now set up worldwide. Morgan has been named BMI Songwriter of the Year and a Grammy in 1988.

His lengthy list of songwriter awards include 44 BMI awards, the Ivor Novello Award for Best Contemporary Song in 1988 (London) with the song "Love Changes Everything" and the Climie Fisher Awards which is the English equivalent of a Grammy and a President's Excellence Awards – NSAI in 1990.

