

Minnesota Music Hall of Fame
Inductee

John Denver
Inducted in 2017

Although he gained iconic status after he moved to Colorado, his early success in Minnesota and his marriage to Annie Martell from St. Peter makes him one of ours. While Denver's early bookings were confined to small venues and coffee houses, his annual concerts at the Gustavus Adolphus campus in St. Peter, Minnesota were his first large venue concerts and were all sellouts before he had a hit song with "Country Roads."