

Lorren Lindevig Inducted in 2013

Lorren was born in Cloquet, Minnesota but his musical life began in 1934 with his father's 2-row Horner button accordion. In 1941, he got a Wurlitzer piano accordion and has been playing it for 72 years! Lorren is one of the most versatile accordionists playing polkas and country western with world renowned artists such as Myron Floren, Frankie Yankovic, Dick Contino and Walter Ostanek. In 1998, he was inducted into the Polka Hall of Fame and his music has been heard all over the USA and other countries. His contemporaries think of his style and music as “Master Accordionist Extraordinaire”.
