Founded in 1912, the Choir has been singing for capacity audiences in major venues across America and around the globe. The St. Olaf Choir has shared the finest sacred choral repertoire inspiring people of all faiths, garnering critical acclaim and setting new standards for choral excellence. The 75-voice choir is the premier choral ensemble of St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minnesota, rehearsing five days a week while maintaining their academics. F. Melius Christiansen, a Minnesota Music Hall of Famer, was the founding director. The first of only four conductors, he was succeeded by his son Olaf Christiansen, Kenneth Jennings and current director Anton Armstrong.
